

I agree with our Governor that New Jersey should keep it's strigent law for not allowing telemarketers to call us. I feel that they are an invasion of our privacy. Plus, they always seem to call at inappropriate hours. My phone numbers are unlisted and I want to keep them private.